

Joseph Asir

Of Counsel

P: 646-428-3272

E: ja@dhclegal.com

Joseph Asir has more than 30 years of legal experience handling immigration matters for large corporations, small businesses, restaurant franchises, tech startups, religious workers, international athletes, performers, movie stars, hospitals, universities, wealthy international investors, and asylum seekers.

Mr. Asir also represents high-end resorts that employ workers on H2B visas, and investors from Korea, China, India, Latin America and other countries. His practice group directs hundreds of immigrant visa cases annually and processes hundreds of non-immigrant visa applications for individuals and companies, with a focus on H1B, L1 and EB-1 through EB-5 visa applications.

Mr. Asir's practice is currently based in West Palm Beach, Florida. He serves as Managing Partner of the Princeton Law Group, a boutique employment immigration firm based in Princeton, New Jersey. He is a graduate of Georgetown University Law Center and holds graduate degrees in International Relations, Management and History.

Admissions

- New York
- Bar Council of India

Education

- Georgetown University Law Center, LL.M., 1994
- LIU/United Nations-NY, M.S., International Relations/Diploma in UN Studies, 1991
- Madras University, Chennai, India, Masters degrees in History and Management, 1985
- Madras Law College, Chennai, India, J.D., 1983
- Loyola College, Chennai, India, B.A., 1979

